

Interventions in Criminal Justice

Edited by Peter Jones

a handbook for working in the criminal justice system

This exciting new book brings together the experiences and expertise of a range of practitioners who work within criminal justice and provides a broad and informative account of a variety of intervention techniques. From pharmacological approaches, through the treatment of various specific conditions and on to the use of poetry and art by prisoners, the book offers a series of thought-provoking chapters that will help inform the practice of anyone who works with this vulnerable population.

The book is edited by Peter Jones, a leading figure in the field of working therapeutically with offenders.

Topics include:

- treating addiction and harm reduction
- working with dissociative identity disorder
- working with personality disordered patients
- the role of the arts
- poetry as a therapeutic intervention.

Vital information for: Probation officers, social workers, counsellors, psychologists who work within the criminal justice system.

Price: £28

Order code: E173

ISBN: 978-1-908993-11-3

Non-photocopiable

